ASHES TO ASHES...

“Remember man, that you are dust, and to dust you will return”

Lent begins on Ash Wednesday, when we sprinkle dust upon our head as a reminder of our mortality, and as a sign of repentance. The ashes may be received by anyone, Catholic or non-Catholic, young or old, believer or non-believer.

The ashes remind us of the curse of death which is upon all mankind due to the Original Sin of Adam. “Through one man sin entered the world, and through sin, death; and thus death came to all men inasmuch as [in Adam] all sinned” (cf. Rm 5:12). Without a way to overcome sin and pay the price of Adam’s sin, mankind is lost and subject to final judgment and eternal separation from God on the terrible Day of the Lord: “The day of wrath, that Day which will dissolve the world in ashes” (Sequence Dies Irae, cf. Zeph 1:15, Mt 24:29).

But thanks be to God for the gift of redemption brought by the new Adam, Jesus Christ. “The gift is not like the transgression. For if by one man’s transgression the many died, how much more did the grace of God and the gracious gift of the one man Jesus Christ overflow for the many. If, by the transgression of one man, death came to reign through that him, how much more will those who receive the abundance of grace and of the gift of justification come to reign in life through the one man Jesus Christ.” (cf. Rm 5:15-17).

The ashes of Ash Wednesday have no intrinsic power to save, nor do they signify blessing. They represent the curse. The ashes have value only as a sincere sign of repentance from sin, and true resolve to be converted, take up the Cross, and follow the difficult path of the Gospel. Without the spiritual tools of fasting, prayer, and almsgiving; and without the sacramental graces of Baptism, Confirmation, Eucharist, and Penance (Confession), we remain lost, and under the curse of eternal death. Lent is the time to humbly and honestly face the truth of what the human condition would be without Christ, under the dominion of the evil one. It is the time to confront evil, and replace the curse of ashes on our forehead, with the Seal of the Holy Spirit, the anointing from God which conforms us to His Beloved Son.
