LENTEN PROMISES

Penance - Each of the 40 days of Lent are “penitential.” They are marked by a personal commitment to sacrifice unnecessary things and reform our lives. The interior penance of the Christian can be expressed in three forms: fasting, prayer, and almsgiving (Mt 6:1-18).

Fasting – We must practice self-denial
Ash Wednesday and Good Friday are obligatory days of fasting and abstinence for Catholics. In addition, Fridays during Lent are obligatory days of abstinence. When fasting, we may eat one full meal. Another smaller meal may also be taken. This rule applies to those who are old enough and in good health.

Abstinence is an ancient sign of solidarity with the poor, whose meals were simple and meatless. Abstinence requires us to avoid the flesh of warm-blooded animals and fowl.

Fasting, practicing abstinence, giving up sweets, and making other sacrifices, is a way to develop greater self-control and growth in virtue. More than this, it is an aid to prayer, as the pangs of hunger remind us of our hunger for God. Lent is especially a time to give up those things that have become a bad habit, or distraction from God, such as smoking, drinking, gambling; anger, cursing; television; other “extras”

Prayer – We deepen our relationship with God. Through prayer, we raise our hearts and minds to God in thanksgiving and praise. Prayer is our vital and personal relationship with the true and living God. During Lent, we place special emphasis on prayer and contemplation of the Passion and Death of our Lord, through devotions such as the Via Crucis (Stations of the Cross). Other suggestions are: Weekday Mass, Rosary, adoration, and scripture reading. Lent is especially a time for the sacrament of Penance (Confession).

Almsgiving – We do good deeds for others. The corporal and spiritual works of mercy are charitable actions by which we come to the aid of our neighbor in his spiritual and bodily need. Among these, giving alms to the poor is one of the chief witnesses to fraternal charity: it is also a work of justice pleasing to God (CCC 2447).
